It's Possible

No matter how difficult your situation may be, you have the ability to turn it around.

You can end the conflict, stop the arguing and restore cooperation. You can heal your relationship, one human being to another.

The key to healing your relationship and having it work is you.

Once you discover the nature of love and conflict, you can change the way you interact with the other person. This in turn changes how that person interacts with you.

It takes two people to create and maintain a cycle of conflict. It only takes one person to end it.

As you end the conflict, cooperation returns. You become more effective and life becomes more enjoyable. We can show you how.

Court Certification

A certificate of completion will be given at the end of the workshop.
